

THE SPECTATOR

"Ker-Feal" Makes a Living Thing Of Early American Arts and Crafts

Some of the photographs taken by "House and Garden" of the Barnes Foundation country place in the Chester County hills and which provide additional facilities for studies in art appreciation. The house is of pre-Revolutionary construction and is furnished with hundreds of pieces of early American origin.

Before the end of 1947 Barnes Foundation in Merion will have been in existence 25 years as a chartered educational institution, but you can bet that will be one silver anniversary that will not be observed in the usual formal manner. Dr. Barnes simply does not do things in that orthodox way. At the same time, it might be expected that a small book will come forth which will outline what has occurred during the first quarter-century of this pioneer endeavor, for this was a case where a man had a clear vision as to exactly what he desired to bring to pass and he also had the prodigious means, as well as the unique personal talents, necessary to make it an assured reality.

The Barnes Foundation on Latch's Lane consists of a gallery and other buildings in a twelve-acre park. Here also is the famed Arboretum which is under Mrs. Barnes' immediate direction. The studies conducted in this department are closely coordinated with the general theme of the Foundation's educational activities and more than a hundred students are constantly engaged in arboriculture and horticultural research.

Dr. Walter Steckbeck, a member of the Narberth School Board, and also an Associate Professor of Botany at the University of Pennsylvania, is on the staff of the Barnes Arboretum, as is Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., vice-provost of the University and Professor of Botany.

Mrs. Barnes' first assistant is John S. Kistler, whom many will remember as having studied under Frank A. Schreier when the late Burgess was pursuing his great specialty of Landscape Architecture. Both Dr. and Mrs. Barnes continue to cherish deep appreciation of Frank's substantial contributions to the work of the Arboretum and the permanent impress he made on the plans for its general development.

The gallery of the Barnes Foundation contains a collection of paintings and sculpture generally acknowledged to be the most notable of its kind in the world. It is not likely that even Dr. Barnes himself knows the money-value which is involved, and it is not suggested that anyone should discuss that phase of the subject with him. More than 1000 pictures are included, all masters, all schools, but nevertheless the incomparable exhibits are not open to the public, and therein lies the essence of the whole endeavor.

The Barnes Foundation is strictly an educational institution with a large program for systematic work, organized into classes, and conducted by a staff of experienced teachers. Visitors would inevitably and obviously interrupt

Chest X-Rays Are Postponed

Chest X-rays scheduled to have been offered to Narberth School pupils and their parents this week and next have been postponed, according to an announcement by W. J. Drennen, Supervising Principal.

Drennen's announcement added that the probable date for the examinations would be the second week of February. The examinations will be free, but contributions will be accepted by the Burge X-ray Clinic, which is making the examinations.

Kennel Club Granted O.K. To Hold Show

Borough Council Gives Permission After Club Changes Sunday Date

The Bryn Mawr Kennel Club will be allowed to hold its annual dog show on the Narberth Playground Saturday, June 28, the Borough Council decided Tuesday night.

At its November and December meetings Borough Council had refused the club permission to hold the show Sunday, June 8, even though the club had agreed to hold the show after 1 o'clock in the afternoon and to leave the grounds "in their original condition."

The Kennel Club show is held annually for the benefit of the Narberth Volunteer Medical Corps, which last year received approximately $700 from the proceeds.

Following rejection of its two earlier appeals by Council, officials of the Kennel Club and the V. M. S. C. asked the Lower Merion Board of School Directors for permission to use the Chichester tract opposite the Senior High School on Montgomery Ave.

The request was turned down. When the club changed the proposed date of the show from Sunday, June 8, to Saturday, June 28, however, Council gave the requested permission.

The following resolution was passed by Council Tuesday night authorizing use of the playground:

"The Chairman of the Property Committee is authorized to permit the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club the use of the community grounds on June 28, 1947, for a dog show for the benefit of the Volunteer Medical Corps; provided that there are no prior commitments for the use of the grounds and that the Kennel Club assume all liability for injuries or damages as a result of the show and that the grounds be restored to their original condition."

Evan James Leaves For Florida Rest

Township Manager Evan L. James left this week for a vacation of several weeks in Florida. He was accompanied by Mrs. James. James, who collapsed in an Ardmore restaurant January 15, was ordered by his physician to remain in bed until this week before he was allowed to make the train trip south.

Narberth To Fete Octogenarians Tuesday, Feb. 11

A distinguished array of Main Liners will be present Tuesday, Feb. 11, to honor Narberth's two octogenarians, Robert H. Durbin and Dr. O. J. Snyder at a community dinner to be held at Overbrook Golf Club.

Among those who have purchased tickets and signified their intention of attending are: Congressman and Mrs. Samuel K. McConnell, County Commissioner and Mrs. Fred Peters, Dwight G. Perkins, new head of Strawbridge and Clothier, where Mr. Durbin was advertising manager for forty years, and official representatives from the Poor Richard Club which Mr. Durbin headed for several years.

Acceptance has been received from John G. Keck, chairman of the Board of Trustees of Osteopathic College and Hospital of Philadelphia, who was invited to introduce Dr. Snyder. The latter was a pioneer and moving spirit in the growth of that institution. John H. Jeffries, Jr., chairman of the volunteer citizens committee arranging the public dinner, has announced three additional members of the committee: Robert L. Beatty, Clarence M. Woolmington and Louis A. Young. Tickets for the affair are available from committee members or from the Narberth bank, Dunne's, Davis' or the Borough offices.

Boro Business Group Holds Yearly Banquet

Illness of President Prevent His Formal Installation

Illness prevented formal installation of the Borough Business Council's new president, Franklin L. Tinker, at the annual banquet of the group Monday evening at the Arcadia Chios.

Other officers installed were vice-president, Robert Hobson, of Hobson and Co., of 105 N. Narberth Ave.; secretary, Miss Mabel Fritsch, of A. M. Fritsch, of 109 Forrest Ave.; treasurer, Joseph C. Adelizzi, of Adelizzi Bros., of 102 Forrest Ave., Narberth and 228 Bala Ave., Bala.

Howard Cotter, of Cotter's Market, 232 Haverford Ave., retiring president of the organization, presented the speaker of the evening, Boyd H. Deardorf.

Deardorf, a teacher of Latin and French at Upper Darby Junior High School, worked as a floorman after school at 69th St. Woolworth store during the war years.

"Education will increase the demands of the consumer," Deardorf said, emphasizing the need for more education in America.

"We must learn that our students need all sorts of learning, including their Latin and their French in order to learn how to learn. But we should have teachers who have business experience in our school system so that they understand what our children will be up against when they get out in the world."

He also emphasized that displays were a large factor in moving merchandise across the counter. In addition, he asked that something be done about the dishonest customer who forces the prices up for honest customers.

Honest customers must pay for the loss due to dishonesty of other customers, he said.

Town Talk

By DOROTHY M. OGDEN

Admiral MILO F. DRAEMEL was saying the other afternoon that he and his wife are going to move into E. J. Frankel's new Wynnewood Plaza Apartment February 1st.

He's been living at The Drake in Philadelphia for some time, and I guess you know that he was Commandant of the 4th Naval District during the war.

One of the first jobs that he will have confronting him in his new job as Secretary of Forests and Waters is a plea from the Horse-Shoe Trail Club, whose president is HENRY N. WOOLMAN, of 132 St. George's Rd., Ardmore.

It seems that ever since the Club was organized in 1930, its members have wanted the trailway between Valley Forge and Canada Gap, 116 miles in length, taken over with permanent rights-of-way to be kept

Narberth Man Held After Stabbing

Vaughn J. Templeman, 50, of Forrest Ave., near Windsor Ave., Narberth, was arrested last Friday after he assertedly stabbed Mrs. Caroline Currens, 37, of Susquehanna Rd., near Bradfield Rd., Roslyn, as she was walking to the office of Magistrate John L. Coyle at 1127 Callowhill St., Philadelphia.

Patrolman Walter Manuszak, who was patrolling his beat, said he saw the woman slump to the pavement on Callowhill St. near 12th. Manuszak said he wrested a penknife from Templeman's hand and arrested him. The woman was treated for slight cuts of the right side, face, back, scalp and right hand at Hahnemann Hospital.

She refused to prosecute Templeman, and both were held in breach of peace charges.

Pfc. John Challice To Be Discharged

Pfc. John T. Challice, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Challice, of 6 Shirley Circle, Narberth, has arrived at Fort Dix, N. J., the nation's largest separation center, to be processed prior to receiving his discharge from the Army.

During his ten months overseas, Pfc. Challice was stationed in Germany, where he served as an engineman operating Diesel generators. Among the decorations he is authorized to wear are the Army of Occupation Ribbon and the World War II Victory Medal.

Before entering the Army, Pfc. Challice was employed as a tree trimmer, and he plans either to return to his old position or to open his own tree trimming business after he is discharged.

Boro Tax Up Half Mill From Last Year's 18

Council Will Ask Voters To Allow New 22 Mill Rate

Narberth Borough Council raised the tax rate half a mill Monday night to balance a budget that, even with increased income, will still fall far short of needed expenditures.

In order to meet mounting and inflated costs of running the Borough, councilmen are planning on a middle-of-the-year vote of the people to raise the Borough's tax rate beyond the maximum limit allowed by State law.

The Borough's new tax rate is 18½ mills, which is the highest tax the law permits the councilmen to impose.

To cover all needed expenditures for 1947, councilmen say that a 22 mills tax rate would be necessary. If the party primaries are held in June, councilmen will ask a vote of the citizens on a higher tax rate at that time, but if the primaries are postponed until Fall councilmen will ask for a vote at another election.

For 1947 councilmen estimated the total budget expenditures at $101,453.80, compared to actual expenditures of $109,661.71 last year.

In order to balance the new year's budget, councilmen had to cut some anticipated expenditures to the bone and lop off others.

An estimated $9,000 will be needed this year for the new lighting system but, due to the fact the work is not scheduled to start until June or July, Council appropriated only $6737. Last year it only cost the Borough $4,180.03 for lighting.

The Planning Commission wanted $2500 this year, but Council cut the appropriated figure to $500.

In the 1947 budget Council appropriated $19,128.56 for police as compared to $17,749 spent last year, but this was due to installing a two-way radio system in patrol cars to synchronize with Lower Merion Township.

Narberth Cubs See Television

Mrs. Mary Horning To Lead 6th Den

Cubs of Narberth Pack No. 212, with their parents and friends, witnessed a demonstration of television at their pack meeting last Friday in the Narberth School Auditorium.

With a special installation of four television receivers supplied by RCA Victor of Camden, about 40 Cubs and 125 parents, friends and guests saw the full Friday evening program telecast by Philadelphia's Station WPTZ, including boxing matches which were televised in New York and relayed through the Philadelphia transmitter.

A large projection-type receiver was located on the auditorium stage while three smaller receivers were set up in the adjacent cafeteria room to divide up the crowd for comfortable watching and listening.

Opening the meeting, Cubmaster S. K. Barclay explained that the business portion of the program would be limited to take full advantage of the television show scheduled to come on the air at eight.

Announcing the formation of the Pack's sixth Den, Barclay said that Mrs. Mary D. Horning had been appointed Den Mother, with Mrs. Rosalind M. Blair as her assistant in supervising the activities of seven boys comprising the new unit. He also introduced two new Den Chiefs, Boy Scouts who assist in Cubbing activities, Jim McDill and Donald Bowers.

After a ceremony inducting new members into the Cub Scout organization, badges and other awards were presented to the boys who had completed work for advancement in rank or special achievements since the last Pack meeting.

For the next Pack meeting, to be held February 27, Barclay informed the group that the main event will be a "Blue and Gold Dinner"—a joint get-together of Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and their parents to celebrate the thirty-seventh birthday of Scouting.

Police In Raid On Narberth Pool-Room

Located in Business District; Had Been Operating Since 1934

A 54-year-old Narberth man who police said had been operating a gambling establishment in the heart of the Borough's business district since 1934 was arrested Saturday afternoon in a surprise police raid.

At the time of the raid, Detective James Smyth said, eight boys under the age of 18 were in the second-floor rooms of the man, who was identified as John D. Shaver, of Conway Ave., near Windsor Ave.

Six of the boys were described as students at Lower Merion High School, two students at nearby private secondary schools. Their names were not made public.

Justice of the Peace Vincent Colelli, at a hearing Saturday night, held Shaver for court in $1000 bail on book-making charges. He was also fined $10 and costs for allowing minors to frequent his establishment.

Sergeant Smyth told Justice of the Peace Colelli at the hearing that Shaver had telephoned bets to a Philadelphia establishment. Shaver, however, he said, told him he didn't remember where the bets had been placed.

Records of 600 horse-race bets were found in Shaver's rooms, it was testified at the hearing.

In the establishment with the eight boys when the place was raided were a number of adults.

Sergeant Smyth said the raid was made after a "tip from a high Borough official."

Union Fire Ass'n To Hold Banquet

The annual banquet of the Union Fire Association of Bala, Cynwyd and Merion, sponsored by the active members of the association, will be held at the Fire Hall Saturday night.

Among the special guests will be Lower Merion Township Commissioners John Boardman, John Curley, Ivan Simpson and Erskine Balis.

Haverford College Will Not Expand Campus Facilities

Haverford College, one of the outstanding small liberal arts colleges in the country, has decided against expanding its facilities and will remain small enough to give personal attention to all its students. Dr. Gilbert F. White told the Ardmore Rotary last Thursday afternoon at the Haverford Court Hotel.

Dr. White, president of the college, said there are now 495 students at Haverford and that future enrollments will be watched carefully so that each student will be assured of small classes and individual attention.

He said all veterans who had attended the college before entering service would be admitted. August Becker, former secretary of the Main Line YMCA, was the chairman for the regular luncheon meeting.

This Thursday, the Ardmore Rotary held a general round table discussion led by President Walter Fish.

Mrs. Laura Latch Jones Dies in Gladwyne at 89

Mrs. Laura Latch Jones, a member of an old Lower Merion family and a lifelong resident of the Township, died last Thursday at the home of her grandson in Gladwyne after a long illness. She was 89 years old.

Mrs. Jones, who had been ill for the past 15 months, was the daughter of Charles W. Latch, who, with his brother Isaac Newton Latch, came here from Bucks County more than a hundred years ago. She was born on the site of the present West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

In 1870 the Latches sold their farm to the cemetery company and moved to Hagey's Ford Rd., in Penn Valley. She married Clarence R. Jones in 1882 at the old St. Paul's Lutheran Church, then located in Wynnewood.

Mr. Jones, who died a quarter of a century ago, was engaged in the dairy business in Lower Merion for many years. He was an uncle of Evan Jones, Lower

Civic Spirit At Its Best

This community newspaper is proud of the part it has had in the arrangements now underway for celebrating the 80th birthday anniversaries of two distinguished local residents, Mr. Robert H. Durbin and Dr. O. J. Snyder.

It was in these columns that the impressive careers of both gentlemen were informally sketched and here that the suggestion was made that the widespread esteem and regard for the octogenarians and their works should be translated into a formal kind of tribute.

True to Narberth tradition, an effective citizens' committee quickly accepted the task of organization and the report is that the "birthday party" to be held at the Overbrook Golf Club on February 11, 1947, and to which all borough residents are invited, will be an affair long to be remembered.

The whole idea is commendable for many reasons, and not the least of them is that Americans are arranging in a special manner to praise the life well spent, the deed well done, to draw inspiration from the achievements of other men and to express appreciation for the roles those they seek to honor have played in making the world a better place in which to live.

Yes, there is a great deal more to a birthday party due those who have served well than that which meets the eye, and Narberth is to be congratulated for not being "too tired" or "too busy" to take pause to celebrate when two of its leading citizens achieve four-score years of highly fruitful endeavors.

and a general utility building on the Community Playground, Council was asked to appropriate $9,698.50, but this figure was cut to $4,983.50 to cover only urgent improvements.

Compared to last year these are some of the major expenditures in the 1947 budget.

For administration $4926 has been appropriated for 1947, compared to $5062.04 spent in 1946; for police—$19,128.56, compared to $17,740.13 spent in 1946; for fire protection—$10,000, compared to $15,000 in 1946; for health protection—$2100, compared to $1894.13 in 1946; for highways—$32,945, compared to $37,502.50 in 1946; for library—$2500, compared to $2500 in 1946; for garbage collection—$2400, compared to $2938 in 1946; for planning—$500, compared to $500 in 1946.

Since councilmen started to study their budget problems they have been casting about for ways and means to maintain their public services and make needed improvements.

One long-term plan is work through the State Association of Boroughs to obtain passage of a new law by the State Legislature to raise the maximum taxation ceiling for boroughs. The Boroughs debt is only $50,000, while a total borrowing capacity of $450,000 is permitted under the law. Borough Solicitor Henry A. Frye has expressed the opinion that if the Borough borrowed more it would endanger its present financial position.

Health Report

Robert J. Thomas, Lower Merion Township Health Officer, reported 17 cases of chicken pox and six cases of mumps during the week ending January 24. Also reported were three cases of scarlet fever and one of tuberculosis.

Co-operative factories handled 84 per cent of Danish hogs.

that important routine and no provision can be made for them.

This (two) in the fine arts has been permitted to see the priceless gems on occasion, a privilege that enables him to better comprehend the philosophy of the Barnes' rule. That philosophy is set forth in those terse terms in which Dr. Barnes excels, for there's a man who knows how to say in succinct manner precisely what he means:

The appreciation of works of art requires organized effort and systematic study, on the same principle that it requires effort and study to become a lawyer, an engineer or a physician. Art appreciation can no more be absorbed by aimless wandering in galleries than surgery can be learned by casual visits to a hospital.

Art is not a phase of life apart from the work-a-day world, to which one may turn in moments of leisure, or perhaps in the name of "culture" or in a spirit of worship. In the Foundation's courses, art is taken out of its usually detached, exotic world and is linked up with life itself, because all the qualities which give painting its value are those which are found in various phases of everyday life, and art has value only because it expresses those qualities. In other words, "art is a fragment of life presented to us enriched in feeling by means of the creative spirit of the artist."

Read those two trenchant paragraphs again and it will be realized that promiscuous admission to galleries where intensive study is the first order of the day would inescapably spell chaos to the entire carefully conceived set-up. On the other hand, if a man or woman has a genuine interest in art, an interest for this reserved venture of art appreciation, he or she can have all the Foundation has to offer without cost, as no student pays at Barnes nor has race or creed or social status anything to do with admission requirements.

The particular thing, however, which induced writing this piece was the visit made last Saturday afternoon to still another department of Barnes Foundation studies. That is located in the Chester County hills, 35 miles from Narberth, a 150-acre farm called Ker-Feal, which is described as an attempt to link the past with the present and at the same time provide something of permanent value for the future.

The stolid farm-house bears a stone dated 1775 and when Dr. Barnes found it there were eight large rooms, each with its original pre-Revolutionary features. Since then a wing has been added to each end of the house, built from the stone found on the farm. The result is that the new blends into the old with utterly no sign of where the additions start. There are some pictures which the Editor may print if they are ready for this issue and which will reveal the extraordinary property far better than any mere narrative.

Inside the house are the countless treasures of yester-year which Dr. Barnes has been collecting for decades. There were many who knew of his frequent trips to the Dutch counties and to other places in quest of particular pieces of authentic vintage. Often also he was observed at the auction sales Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, who is a well-informed student of Americana, having many rare articles herself, said she always secured a seat back of Dr. Barnes and his aides when she visited Freeman's. She enjoyed seeing him "in action," bidding or buying with a nod of the head or even less than that. He always knew what he was after, said Mrs. Mueller, and the auction manager stated that what Dr. Barnes purchased never came back to sell again. That was not the case, by any means, with others who pursued the antiques, but apparently without any particular plan or purpose.

As Ker-Feal and its trophies were therefore long in process it would be well to have the Doctor himself describe what he had in mind in the further development, by new means, of "art appreciation" studies:

Ker-Feal and its furniture, like everything else in the world, will mean to a person what he brings to it in point of background of knowledge, of interest in the subject-matter, of esthetic-sensitivity. As a historic monument, it is important because it reflects accurately some cherished values of the life of Americans in pre-Revolutionary times.

For persons especially interested in education as the door to the attainment of a richer, fuller enjoyment of what the world has to offer, Ker-Feal has an especial appeal. Its historic values, and the simplicity of both the house and its furnishings, call forth a feeling of pleasure that increases in proportion as the mind strolls backward into the past.

That's a happy thought, the feeling of pleasure that increases as the mind strolls into the past, for one does not have to comprehend literally this rather profound "art appreciation" to experience the inspiring sensation that comes when one beholds the handiwork of a man who lived long before him and who had expressed himself in a painstaking craftsmanship that connotes in a special manner the common kinship of all humanity.

Perhaps Dr. Barnes will say that the understanding and the thrill which one derives from reflection on what men long dead have passed along as tokens of their time will signify the artistic and spiritual fellowship which binds all the denizens of the earth. Something like that could be, as this reporter brought home a great deal more than what he took to Ker-Feal and he is grateful for the opportunity he had to make the wonderful visit.

free from motor traffic forever. The Club has suggested that $100,000 be set aside from an appropriation made last year by the State Legislature of $16,500,000 for public park and forestry development.

There are a lot of people around here interested in this project, including LAWRENCE SAUNDERS, of William Rd., Bryn Mawr; GUY L. CORNMANN, of Conshohocken State Rd., Gladwyne, and WILLIAM NELSON WEST, III, of 611 Sussex Rd., Wynnewood.

JOHN CABRY, one of the directors of the National Bank of Narberth, was saying that he had met up with the REV. BRYANT KIRKLAND at Wanamaker's last week and that Mr. Kirkland told him all about his new church in Haddonfield.

It seems that though he misses the Narberth Presbyterian Church he now numbers New Jersey's new Governor, ALFRED E. DRISCOLL, in his new congregation.

Talking with MRS. MAX TRUMPER, of 155 Summit Lane, Cynwyd, I learned that her 16-year-old daughter, Ruth, is going to Mexico City for this next semester. She's going to be an exchange student from Friends' Central School and will live with a Spanish-speaking Mexican family where she'll have a chance to use that Spanish she's been studying at school this year. Her brother, DAVE, went to Mexico last year under the same system of the American Friends' Service Committees' goodwill exchange of young people with other countries.

Last Wednesday night the women of the Main Line Soroptimist Club had MRS. JESSIE ROYER GREAVES as their guest speaker. She gave a most interesting talk about her work with blind underprivileged children.

Some years ago, while she was teaching at the Overbrook School for the Blind, she noticed a direct relationship between blind children's environment and their progress in adjusting to the handicap—so, at that time she took several children into her home to take care of them. As the years went by, more and more children who were brought to her for her care achieved amazing results. Now she has a farm in Paoli where 37 children live and learn how to get around without their sight.

It is typical of the Soroptimists that they are supporting her cause and gave her a chance to explain her work. MRS. DORIS BERTLES, she's up at the Main Line YMCA, was acting president because MRS. ELEANOR LYONS, who's in G. FORDE HANSELL's realty office in Ardmore, was ill last week.

Cynwyd's MRS. J. E. D. GRAVES, of 328 Bryn Mawr Ave., has members of her family in the United Nations.

He is FRANCIS B. SAYRE, one-time High Commissioner of the Philippines, who's just been appointed as United States representative on the United Nations Trusteeship Council. For the past six months he's been in South American recently on a government mission.

Narberth's PARKER WOOLMINGTON has opened a Mobilgas station at 129 E. Lancaster Ave., Ardmore... (he lived at 23 Narbrook Park for 25 years and now lives at 300 Woodside Ave., with his sister, Ruth... He has another Narberth boy working for him, JACK CONWAY, of 7 Wynnewood Court, and they are doing very well.

Sorry to hear that MRS. ROBERT F. BROWN, wife of the Bala-Cynwyd Neighborhood Club president, has been ill and we all hope that she will be better soon.

When the demolition squad started to tear down the house on the new property which RAY SCOTT bought for his Lincoln-Mercury agency at 265 E. Lancaster Ave., Wynnewood, it had help... Fire broke out there Saturday morning and burned out the window and door frames...

Guess MARY and ALEX CHANCE (she's the daughter of ALEX WILLIAMS, Haverford Township engineer who lives on Tregon Rd., Cynwyd) are having themselves quite a country-wide tour. They left Cynwyd shortly after Xmas and the last card I had from them said that they had spent a week in Florida and it was postmarked from New Mexico...

HELEN ENGLE, she's down at the Township Assessor's office, leaves for Bermuda Friday... She will stay at the Mont Manor there till February 8.

Speaking of the Township Building... Saw pretty VIOLET ARMSTRONG, she's secretary to CLARENCE BEATTY, superintendent of the Park Department, doing some fancy knitting the other day during lunch... She wields a fast knitting needle...

MORRIS CHIOS put on quite a banquet for the Narberth Boro Business Council Monday night. It was too bad that FRANK TINKER, newly elected president of that organization, couldn't be there, but he had just had an operation at Bryn Mawr Hospital that day... BOB HOBSON, vice-president of the organization, took over the chair for the evening and welcomed everyone in Frank's name. Incidentally, that was a beautiful smoking jacket the group gave the outgoing president, HOWARD COTTER...

the operation of a farm owned by Mr. Jones' father at Mill Creek and Righter's Mill Rds., Gladwyne, which later became the Crosby Brown estate.

In 1903 they moved to another farm on Conshohocken State and Righter's Mill Rds., Gladwyne, where Mrs. Jones lived until two years ago. Since then she had made her home with her grandson, Lloyd Keech, at 432 N. Righter's Mill Rd.

In addition to her grandson, she is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Anna Keech, of the same address, and another grandson, Linwood Keech, of 2751 Morris Rd., Ardmore, and by four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Jones is also survived by her sister, Mrs. Eva Latch Grow, of Penn Valley, and her brother, Newton Latch, of Norristown. Mrs. Grow will celebrate her 92nd birthday Feb. 24.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jones were held Monday afternoon at Stuard Funeral Home, 104 Cricket Ave., Ardmore. Interment was in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Gladwyne.

Senior Women To Hear World Peace Problems

Mrs. Victor H. Frank, an executive and member of the United Nations Council of Philadelphia, will speak on "Are We Awake to the Problems of Building World Peace?" at the next meeting of the Narberth Women's Community Club. The meeting will be held Tuesday, February 4, in the Community Building at 2 P. M.

Mrs. Frank is also radio committee chairman and member of the speakers' bureau of the Philadelphia United Nations Council; former radio commentator for stations WCAU and WFIL, and chairman of the Women's Committee of the Philadelphia Forum.

The musical program will include selections by Shirley Treple, cello soloist, of the Curtis Institute of Music.

On Tuesday, the conservation and gardens committee sponsored a meeting at which Mr. Paul Rumpff gave a talk on "Flowers of the Desert." He illustrated his talk with the showing of colored moving pictures he had taken him-

The fellowship committee, whose chairman is Mrs. Karl Williams, staged a desert-bridge Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Raymond Krug, of 21 Windsor Ave., Narberth.

M. L. Girl Scouts Groups Entertains Troop Leaders

The Main Line Committee of Girl Scouts, headed by Mrs. J. F. Vollmer, of Rosemont, entertained approximately 60 troop leaders and assistant leaders at a buffet luncheon at the Merion Cricket Club last Wednesday.

Mrs. Sam H. P. Read, vice-chairman of the committee and chairman for the day, presided at the short meeting held after the luncheon. At this time, members of the committee and Mrs. Jean Allen, professional director of District 8, were introduced.

Mrs. Guy L. Corman, of Gladwyn, member of the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Council, brought greetings from that body. Mrs. James Hazlett Jones, president of the Shakespear Club of the University of Pennsylvania and chairman of the Girl Scout Day Camping Committee, spoke on the problems of leadership with particular emphasis on Day Camping.

Prior to Mrs. Jones' talk, Mrs. Hugh Robertson, of Merion, led the group in Girl Scout songs, and Mrs. Theodore Stieber, head of the Juliette Low fund made a plea for support of this cause by all Main Line troops. The annual collection of contributions to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund is made in March, which in 1947 marks the 35th anniversary of the beginning of Girl Scouting in the United States.

Mrs. Charles Strickler, of Merion, reported on the ice skating party held at the Ardmore rink January 17 and attended by a host of girls from all the Main Line troops.

Mrs. Victor Rehr of Merion, who is chairman of the Cookie Sale, asked that all troops promote the sale of cookies now under way in the entire Philadelphia area. Each troop will profit by a small percentage on the number of boxes its members sell.

The larger profits will be allocated to troop camping needs towards the improving of sites and equipment. The Scouts are taking orders between January 24 and February 5. Delivery of ordered boxes to the troops will be made between February 22 and March 1 for delivery to customers.

Members of the Main Line District Committee are: Chairman, Mrs. J. F. Vollmer, of Rosemont; vice chairman, Mrs. Samuel H. P. Read, of Narberth; Overbrook chairman, Mrs. Fred Lehman; Merion chairman, Mrs. Harold Tucker; Cynwyn chairman, Mrs. Thomas Colgan; Narberth chairman, Mrs. Theodore Stieber; Ardmore chairman, Mrs. James McLaughlin; Ardmore assistant chairman, Mrs. George Gilbert; Penn Wynne chairman, Mrs. Bernard Brown; Wayne chairman, Mrs. Robert Spurdie; secretary, Mrs. A. Vogel, of Merion; Low committee, Mrs. Theodore Stieber, of Penn Valley; Local Camping chairman,

Patricia Moore Austin Becomes Bride Saturday

Holy Trinity Church was the setting for a smart wedding Saturday afternoon when Miss Patricia Moore Austin, daughter of Mrs. James Moore Austin, of Germantown, became the bride of Mr. John Edward Heppie, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Marcellus McD. Heppie, of Cynwyd. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Frank Salmon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, James Moore Austin, was gowned in Leamy ivory satin, the model featuring an off-the-shoulder neckline, long sleeves and a hoop skirt ending in a wide train. Her tulle veil was trimmed with lace and held with a cap beaded of the lace. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and white violets.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Rodgers served as maid of honor and the bridesmaids included Miss Edith O. Tatnall, cousin of the bride; Miss Joan Carson, Miss Mary Lee Hillhouse and Miss Barbara B. Dexter.

The attendants were gowned alike in cerise velvet dresses with heart-shaped necklines and full skirts. Their flowered head-dresses matched their bouquets of white tulips and lilies.

Lorraine Hepburn, flower girl for her cousin, wore a white net frock and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white and red flowers. Her tiara matched her bouquet.

Mr. Heppie acted as best man for his son and the ushers were F. Marcellus McD. Heppie, Jr., and Price Deal Heppie, brothers of the bridegroom; N. Ramsey Penny-packer, James D. Evans, C. Cres-son Wistar and Lambert Ott.

A reception at the Philadelphia home of the bride's grandmother followed the ceremony. Mr. Heppie and his bride will make their home in Philadelphia.

Anne Sargent Lincoln and F. Howes to Plight Troth

The Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, will be the scene of an important wedding Saturday afternoon, when Miss Anne Sargent Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Freeman Lincoln, of New York, formerly of Philadelphia, becomes the bride of Frank Lincoln Howes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Howes, of Boston. The ceremony, which will take place at 4 o'clock, will be performed by Canon Ernest C. Earp.

Mrs. Richard Anderson, of New Haven, will act as matron of honor, and Miss Crosby Lincoln, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. The bridesmaids will include Miss Barbara W. Zimmerman, Miss Ann Hunter, Miss Sarah H. Grimm, Miss Janice Williams, Miss Phoebe Shelby McNeely and Miss Nancy Tyner.

Jonathon B. Mitchell will serve as best man, and the ushers will be Robert W. Mitchell, Henry S. Howes, Jr., Henry F. Mitchell, Douglas F. Farrington, William Swan, Edwin U. Curtis, Rufus C. Walker, Richard Schanzle and Theodore T. Whitney 3d.

Valerie Klauder Weds Saturday In Wynnewood

Klauder, daughter of Mrs. E. Pow-ers Klauder, of 33 Loves Lane, Wynnewood, to Ragnar Jon Bruno, son of Mrs. Ragna Bruno, of New York City, formerly of Cynwyd, and the late Mr. Guido Bruno, took place quietly at the home of the bride's mother on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Gibson Bell, rector of All Saints Church, Wynnewood, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Harry Ewing Parker, of Southampton, Pa., had as her maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Dorothy Adams, of Bala-Cynwyd. William Susskind, of Merion, acted as best man. There were no ushers.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip, the newlyweds plan to make their home in Wynnewood until Mr. Bruno enters Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio.

Mrs. Bruno is a graduate of Springfield School, Springfield, Vt. The bridegroom graduated from Episcopal Academy. He served two years with the Naval forces in the Pacific theater.

Nancy G. Wilson And Jonathon Dunn To Wed

Mrs. George Searing Wilson, of "Nansear," Haverford, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Nancy Gertrude Wilson, to Jonathon Dickerson Dunn, son of Mr. Houston Dunn, of "Dunham," Rosemont.

Miss Wilson, who made her debut on December 23, attended the Agnes Irwin School and Ogontz Junior College. After serving three years in the U. S. Navy, Mr. Dunn is now a student at Ursinus College. He attended St. Andrew's School and Admiral Faragut Academy.

Narberth Junior Club to Stage Reciprocity Musical

The Narberth Junior Woman's Community Club will stage a Reciprocity Musical in the Narberth Community Building on Thursday, February 6.

Invitations have been issued to representatives of all thirteen Junior Women's Clubs in Montgomery County, and to members of the Senior Women's Club in Narberth.

Included in the day's program will be a pianist, Miss Annette Lockhart, faculty member of the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music, and a dramatic soprano, Mrs. Jean Walton Parcher, who will be accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. Thomas Walton.

Mrs. Dallas Mueller is in charge of the entire program. The hospitality committee, who will welcome the guests, has as its chairman, Mrs. Louise I. Getzow. Mrs. Getzow will be assisted by her co-chairman, Mrs. Raymond Kaufman and Miss Margaret Robertson and Mrs. Joseph Kaufman.

Mrs. George Richards is in charge of the decorating committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Mercer Rowe, Jr., Miss Miriam Pulch, Mrs. A. H. Campbell, Mrs. William Helzer, Mrs. Allan Cuthbert and Mrs. John V. Adams.

Chairman of the refreshment committee is Mrs. George Albert. Her committee members include Mrs. K. W. Mitchell, Mrs. Edward Vick, Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Mrs. Harry Tyler, Mrs. Henry MacAvoy, Mrs. Ray Hunter and Mrs. J. Harper Claycomb.

At a meeting of the executive board held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Burns, of 3 Schiller Ave., Penn Valley, it was decided to make donations to the Narberth Welfare Fund and to the March of Dimes.

The arts and crafts group met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William M. Harris, of 406 Essex Ave., Narberth. Preparations were made for the Valentine Dance to be held on Feb. 14. It has been announced that the juniors will buy new records for the victrola used at the Youth Dances.

Chaperones for the dance held last Friday included Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Stoltz, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Harris, Mrs. Lucy H. Grey and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaufman.

Villanova's Joe Lord Retains Court Scoring Lead with 16-9 Mark

Joe Lord, Villanova veteran and former Navy fighter pilot, continued to pace Philadelphia district basketball scorers as the season reached the midway mark this week.

The slim six-footer, who is one of the best set shot artists ever to play in this area, boosted his season's total to 203 points for an average of 16.9 in 12 games. His average easily eclipsed that of his closest pursuer, La Salle's Bobby Walters.

In all, Lord has scored 83 field goals and 37 fouls for his 203-point total. Walters, who has played in 14 games, has tallied 168 points for an average of 12.0.

La Salle's Bobby Walters, a 6-foot-9 La Salle senior, has scored 143 points in 14 games for a 10.2 ranking, while Chink Crossin, Penn. is fourth with 136 points.

In team standings, Villanova stands third in scoring with a 50.9 average, trailing La Salle (62.6) and St. Joseph's (56.5). In all, Al Severance's Wildcats have registered 611 points in 12 games against 877 for La Salle and 792 for St. Joseph's.

Following Wednesday's game against Army at West Point, the Wildcats will play Yale at New Haven this Saturday night. Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy, previously beaten by Villanova in the New Yorkers' gymnasium, will play in the Main Line Field House next Wednesday night, Feb. 5.

Local Teams Win Catholic Bowling Titles

Bowling teams from Highland Park, Oakmont, Ardmore and Bryn Mawr were among the 19 teams to capture first half championships in the Philadelphia Catholic Bowling League's 166-team race.

The Laurentinians, of Highland Park, champions of their division for two years, won the first half laurels in the Southwestern Division, formerly the White, with the best record of the entire league.

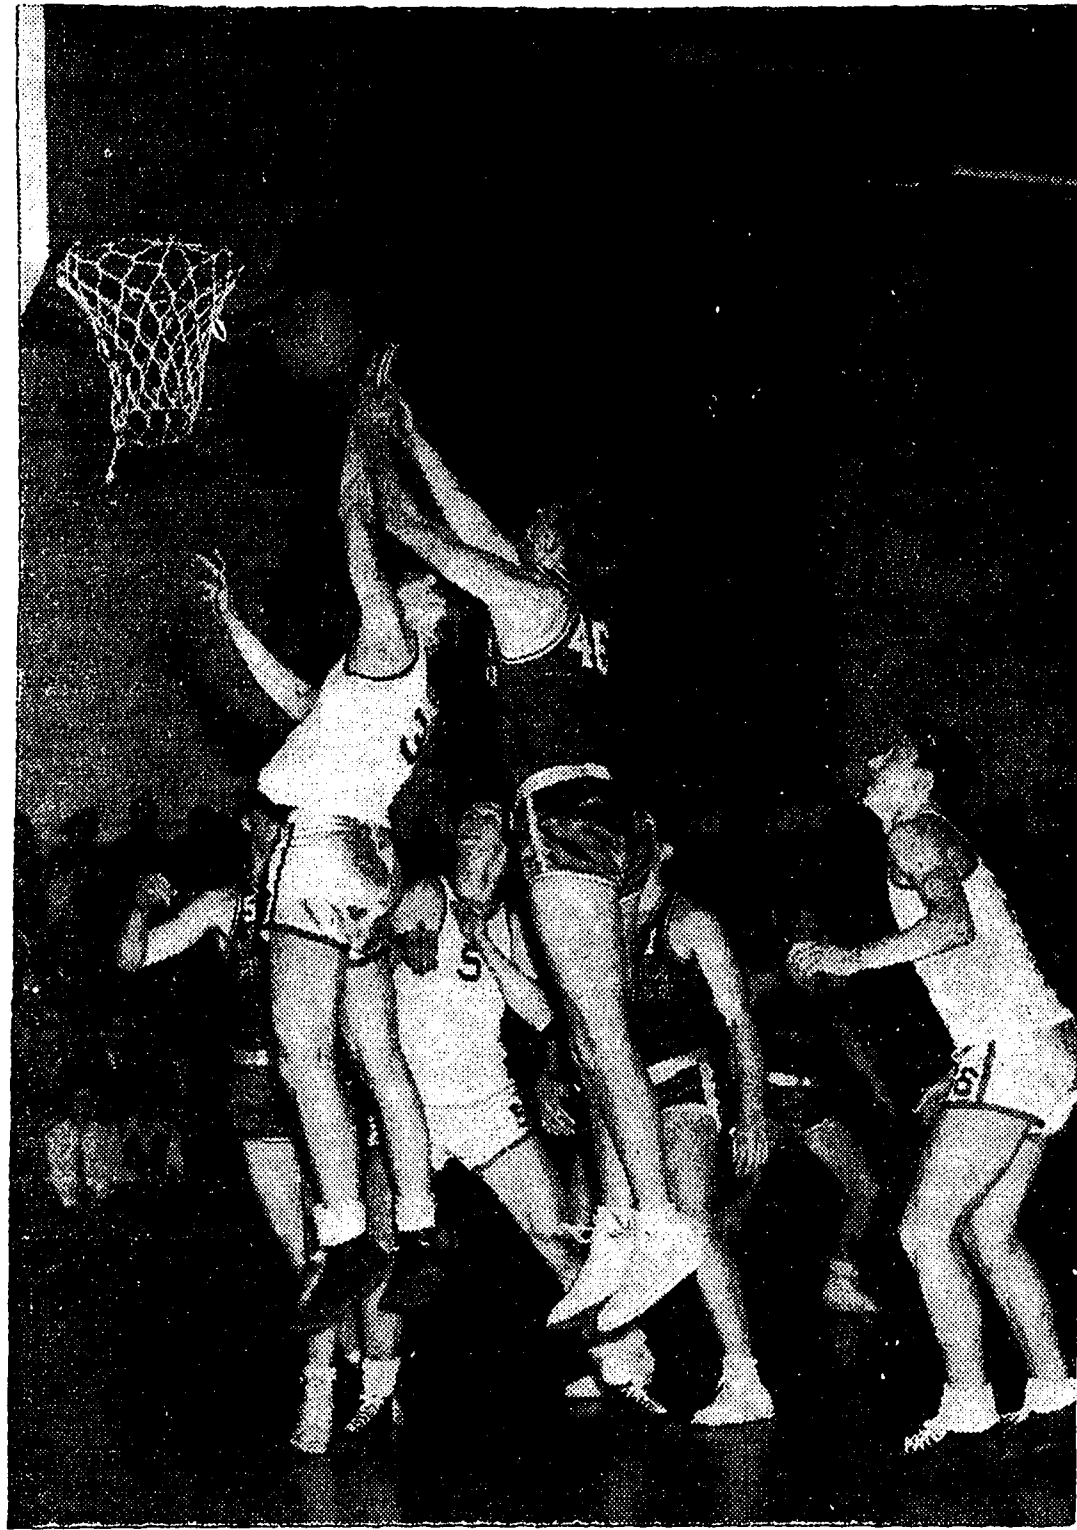

Captain John Kelbmann's team won 49 and lost only 7 points after starting the season with 25 straight before losing a point. They also won by a 17-point margin over their nearest rivals.

Nick Amadio, Bill Curley, Ed Shertz, Ed Campbell, Ed Leaf, Sr., and Andy Sivak were the Laurentinians who gained the laurels at the Dykes' Colonial.

St. Denis, of Oakmont, a new girls' team piloted by Theresa Dykes, daughter of the former Athletics' third baseman, won the Girls' Red Division title by a four-point margin over Nativity of Media.

St. Colman's, of Ardmore, won the Main Line "A" Division laurels and Mother of Good Counsel's bowlers from Bryn Mawr won the Main Line "B" crown. St. Lawrence's, of Highland Park, finished second in the Suburban Division and Annunciation, of Brookline, tied St. Thomas, of Villanova, for second in the Main Line "B". St. Katherine's of Wayne, was second in the Main Line "A".

Vets To Play Wayne, Brooks Meet Chester

Narberth Passers
Whip Wayne, 56-32;
Coatsville Wins

By HARRY ELLSWORTH
While Narberth and Coatsville, pace-setters in the Main Line league, were scoring easy victories over lowly Wayne and Chester, the Lower Merion Veterans coked out a thrilling 58-52 victory over Brookline on Monday night.

Narberth led all the way in whipping Wayne, 56-32, and Coatsville scored at will as the Steelers walloped Chester, 86-62. Tow Davidson scored 20 points for Narberth, while Bobby Kechin notched 24 for Coatsville.

The season's first double-header featuring senior Main Line Basketball league contenders will be staged Friday at Lower Merion High's Downs gym.

Brookline Mitchell & Ness fighting grimly to hold on to four place and thus qualify for the post season playoffs, meets Wayne in the opener at 7:30 p. m. and the high-powered Lower Merion Vets tackle Penn Steel of Chester in the wind-up at 9 p. m.

Wayne, recent upset victory over Lower Merion, presents a serious problem to Brookline, which has to win in order to stay in the first division. Lower Merion also needs a victory to hold third place and can take nothing for granted in Chester, which it barely nosed out 56-52 recently at Chester.

In its last visit to the Main Line, Chester dropped a close decision to first-place Narberth, although holding the league pace-setters to five points in the second half.

Lower Merion and Brookline put on a hair-raising battle before a large crowd Monday night at Haverford Junior High with the Vets finally pulling the decision out of the fire in an extra period, 58-52.

It was a nip and tuck battle all the way. Brookline led at the half, 18-17, but trailed through most of the second half until Charlie Gunther and Bill Thomas netted field goals to give the Brooks a 46-43 edge with a minute to go.

However, a sensational one-handed shot by Hank Belber found the corse for Lower Merion with 15 seconds to go, and on the final play of the game Belber was fouled behind midcourt by Thomas. Belber converted the try to tie the score at 46 and necessitate five minutes overtime.

The teams matched three field goals before Don Evans converted two free throws with 1:10 remaining to give Lower Merion a 54-52 lead. In the final 45 seconds, Belber broke away for two field goals that made the final victory margin six points.

Each team scored 21 field goals, with Lower Merion winning at the foul line by converting 15 of 28 tries while Brookline had only 16 free throws, making ten.

Evans and Koehler led the Vets with 15 and 12 points, respectively, while Charlie Gunther and Bill Thomas were high for Brookline with 15 and 14. Gunther, who made Brookline's first ten points, committed four personal errors early in the game. This forced him to spend half of the game on the bench and hurt Brookline's chances considerably.

Havertown came from behind to overcome Sun Oil and continue its upward climb in Section One of the Main Line B league.

On Monday Havertown and Brookline both invaded Narberth. Also on Monday, pacesetter Wayne IAC meets Havertown at 7:30 p. m. and Clifton Heights and Brookline tangle in a crucial game at 9 p. m. in a double-header at Haverford Junior High gym.

Aces Beaten Twice By Norristown, Hill; Fords 33-32 Victim

Beaten in its last two starts, Lower Merion High will attempt to regain the victory path Friday night when it plays Abington High's Chosits in a Suburban Section One game at Abington. Haverford High will play Upper Darby at Brookline, Friday night.

Next Tuesday, Ollie Robinson's Ardmore Aces will play another Old York Road opponent, Cheltenham, on the foreign floor. Radnor will be met in a renewal of their bitter inter-league rivalry at Wayne Friday, Feb. 7.

Lower Merion lost its first game in defense of the Section One crown last Friday when Norristown's title-bound team scored a convincing 64-47 triumph. Norristown thus boosted its scoring average to 51 points per game.

Seeking its first league title since 1928, Norristown's high-flying Eagles vaulted to a 27-22 halftime edge. Leading the assault were Carmen Schiavo and Domenic Cuono, who tallied 42 points between them. Schiavo had 11 field goals and two fouls for 24 and Cuono scored nine double-dunkers.

Len Shephard and Tom Davis, only holdovers from last year's team, topped Lower Merion with 19 and 14 points, respectively. Shephard had seven field goals and five fouls; Davis dunked five twin tallies and four fouls.

In an inter-league game Monday, Lower Merion dropped a 36-31 decision to Hill School at Ardmore. L. M. trailed by 14-24 at half-time, but closed the gap to 27-23 in the third period. If Lower Merion High will attempt to regain the victory path Friday night when it plays Abington High's Chosits in a Suburban Section One game at Abington. Haverford High will play Upper Darby at Brookline, Friday night.

Meanwhile, Haverford High fell to its fourth league loss Friday night, dropping a heart-breaking 33-32 decision to Cheltenham. Haverford trailed by 17-21 at halftime and, although Steve Juenger's chargers rallied gamely in the concluding minutes, couldn't quite overhaul the Panthers. Davis overhauled the Panthers, dropping eight points to pace Haverford, scoring three field goals and two fouls. Cordes caged seven. Haverford will play host to Upper Darby, which also has lost four straight league tussles, Friday night in a game which none-the-less seems certain to tax the capacity of the Fords' Brookline gymnasium. It will mark the end of the first half race and the Fords' first meeting with the Royals this season.

On Tuesday, Haverford will play host at Abington High, while Lower Merion will again be met, this time at Brookline, on Friday, Feb. 7.

Sphas at Arena

Three of the Sphas' regularly-scheduled American League basketball games have been transferred to the Philadelphia Arena. The Sphas will meet Troy there on Feb. 4. The same night the Philadelphia Warriors play Providence Steamrollers in a Basketball Association of America feature.

County Sportsmen Oppose Registration of Firearms

The Montgomery County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs held its annual meeting and election of officers at the Valley Forge Hotel, Norristown last Monday night. The meeting was attended by representatives of 16 clubs in the county. Officers elected for 1947 are: J. Russell Meyers, Ambler, president; Roger Lachman, East Greenville, 1st vice president; Lawrence Bonnell, Willow Grove, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Ellen A. Dietrich, Upper Darby, secretary; and Leroy Hillebeitel, Souderton, treasurer.

It was announced that the federation's first post-war banquet would be held April 9 at the Valley Forge Hotel.

Winners in last year's Large Fish, Large Game and Vermen contest were announced by Howell Dietrich, of Upper Darby, chairman of the contest.

They are: buck deer, William R. Kirkpatrick, Souderton; cottontail rabbit, Mrs. Ellen A. Dietrich, Upper Darby; pheasant, Thomas Johnson, Havertown; brown trout, Walter Johnston, Roxborough; rainbow trout, Harry F. Hinkle, Narberth; large mouth bass, John J. Chain, Bryn Mawr; brook trout, Walter Johnson, Bryn Mawr.

The federation unanimously voted to support Representative Charles H. Brunner, Jr., in presenting to the State Legislature two bills for the rehabilitation of present dams and construction of new ones in Montgomery county and throughout the State.

The federation also voted to oppose contemplated Federal legislation requiring the registration of firearms on the grounds that it would be detrimental to sportsmen and would in no way curb criminals. It also went on record as opposing the use of automatic or semi-automatic guns for hunting in Pennsylvania.

The Federations project this year, in line with its policy of increasing game, will be the construction of an additional pheasant pen and brooder house at the Eastern Penitentiary at Graterford, where birds are being raised to stock the woods for sportsmen in this area.

Russell Wrestles In Arena Windup

Tony Martinelli will meet Rebel Rob Russell and Vic Holbrook will oppose Bibber McCoy in this Friday's wrestling show under the promotion of Eddie Gottlieb and Jules Aronson at the Arena.

McCoy drew with Martinelli here last week, and he will be out to maintain his top billing when he goes against Vic Holbrook, towering 6-foot-4 ace from Hollywood.

Russell boasted the best record on the Arena mat last season. Last Friday, he was disqualified for his off-color tactics against Bronko Nagurski.

It is estimated that one-third of Florida's income is derived directly or indirectly from tourist trade.

3 VFMA Teams Play Saturday

Three Valley Forge Military Academy athletic teams—basketball, swimming and fencing—will be in action this Saturday, although only the fencers will perform in the Wayne gymnasium.

Maj. Jack Maddox's basketball team, which won two of its first three contests, will play at National Farm School Saturday following last Wednesday's game with Army Plebes at West Point.

Valley Forge swimmers, who dropped an inaugural 34-22 decision to Army Plebes, will meet Wyoming Seminary at Scranton Saturday. The fencing team, in its third start this season, will play host to Haverford School.

Only Maj. Rop Phillips' Trojan wrestlers will be idle. Valley Forge matmen, who have won 12 straight over a three-year span—including three this year—will return to action Feb. 8, meeting Mercersburg Academy at home.

18 Year Olds Are Warned To Register

Face Prosecution If Fail To Report To Draft Boards

Montgomery and Delaware County draft boards have warned that young men who attain their 18th birthday and fail to register with their local draft boards may face prosecution in the Federal courts.

The statement from the Selective Service boards follows:

"The liability of every male citizen of the United States and every other male person, residing in the United States, including those who become 18 years old to register with a draft board as provided in the Selective Service Act of 1940 as amended, remains unchanged.

"While the Selective Service Act exempts men under 19 years of age from induction, except as volunteers, prompt registration at the age of 18 remains compulsory.

"Any such person becoming 18 years old is required by law to present himself immediately for registration by the local board for the area in which he has his permanent home or by the local board where he happens to be on that day.

"Men becoming 18 years old are reminded that their failure to register with the draft board is a violation of the Selective Service Act punishable upon conviction, of imprisonment for five years or a fine of $10,000 or both.

"All local boards are open daily Monday through Friday and men becoming 18 years old are urged to present themselves promptly for registration. Failure to do so will result in prosecution in the Federal court."

Love Sermon Topic In Churches of Christ

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, February 2. The Golden Text is: "Be-loved, let us love one another: for love is of God;... He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love" (1 John 4:7, 8).

Among Bible citations comprising the Lesson-Sermon is the following: "If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also" (1 John 4:20, 21).

4 Scholarships Open To Local Girls

Girl high school students from Lower Merion and Haverford Townships and the Borough of Narberth are eligible to compete for four scholarships which will be awarded by the New Jersey College for Women to students who will enter college next September.

They are the Mabel Smith Douglass Scholarship of $800; the National Scholarship of $500; the Herbert Memorial Fund Scholarship of $1500, and the McClymonds Scholarship of $250. Information may be obtained from the Secretary of Scholarship Committee, New Jersey College for Women, New Brunswick, N. J.

Brookline Junior Club To Stage Reciprocity

Plans for a Reciprocity to be held Thursday, February 6, were discussed at an executive board meeting of the Brookline Junior women's Club last Thursday night. The meeting was held at the home of Margaret Steele, of 30 Katherine Rd., Brookline.

The reciprocity is being held in honor of all other Delaware County Junior Women's Clubs.

The program will include musical selections by the Brookline Senior Club chorus, and readings by Mrs. W. L. Wilkin.

VETERANS' SERVICE BUREAU

Approximately 90,000 children whose fathers died as a result of World War II service are receiving monthly compensation benefits, ranging from $15.60 to $30 per month, Veterans' administration announces.

Widows of these deceased veterans are entitled to receive $60 per month for themselves and $18 for one child plus $15.60 each for any additional children. In the event that both parents are deceased, the child's legal guardian receives $30 per month. If there are two children, the guardian receives $45.60, plus $12 for each additional child.

Recent legislation removed previous restrictions as to the total amount payable in these cases. In effect, the law authorizes compensation for each child surviving the veteran regardless of the number of children and grants a 20 per cent increase in payments. All children are entitled to this compensation until they reach the age of 18 unless they marry before that time.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. My son has been in service 18 months, has been overseas a year and is still in Berlin. He didn't make an allotment to me as we didn't know he could, and I have just found out nearly every one drew allotments from sons in service, which I could have done if I had known about it. He sent me a little money he could spare and bought himself a bond each month. I do not own a farm, just rent, only milk a few cows. Have five children under 16, all in school except one. I wonder if I could draw any back pay for the time he has been gone, also start drawing now. I surely need it.—Mrs. P. O. D., Seymour, Mo.

A. Your son is at fault in this matter, since all men going into the service and especially when they go overseas are thoroughly briefed concerning their dependents and their allotment rights. Their dependents are entered on their service records. I do not think you can get back allotment but, if you son will ask his commanding officer for an allotment for you, he can obtain it since it is entirely voluntary on the part of your son. There have been rare instances where the war department has recognized claims for back pay in these cases, however and to be sure, you should write to the Office of Dependency Benefits, War Department, Newark 2, N. J., and explain your case.

Q. Is it true that I don't have to pay the premiums on my husband's national service insurance as he is a disabled veteran of World War II, and will I get the money back which I have already paid?—Mrs. C. E. B., Lewistown, Pa.

A. No, it is not necessarily true. Veterans' administration says that a veteran of World War II must be totally disabled for a period of at least six months before he is eligible to make application for a waiver of his premium payments; and that this waiver, if granted, shall not affect any premiums which become due more than a year before the application for a waiver was received by the VA. There is no money returned. Suggest you consult with your local VA office or with your local post of the American Legion.

Q. My son went overseas in March, 1944. In May he wrote for us to fix allotment papers and in June they began taking out of his pay and did so until he died in December, 1944. Can we get that pay?—Mrs. B. W., Pontotoc, Miss.

A. Yes, and also six months additional pay. Write to the Office of Dependency Benefits, War Department, Newark 2, N. J., and explain your case fully, giving your son's full name, serial number, the date and manner of his death, if you know. Your answer may be delayed, since this department of the army is in process of moving to St. Louis.

Q. I am a widow of a veteran of World War I who died while in France. I never did receive an allotment or any of his insurance. Am I due anything?—Mrs. R. L. K., New Hope, Ala.

A. If you the legal widow of a veteran who died in France in World War I you are entitled to his insurance, if he had government insurance. You also are entitled to a widow's pension.

Q. I am a widow of a veteran of World War I who died while in France. I never did receive an allotment or any of his insurance. Am I due anything?—Mrs. R. L. K., New Hope, Ala.

Miss Hunter, a graduate of Sidwell Friends School, is a student at Sweet Briar College.

Lt. Derr served two years in the Pacific and is now stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas. He is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, class of 1945.

The marriage will take place in June, following Miss Munter's graduation.

Mrs. Valentine Nicholas Bieg, of Buck Lane and Haverford Rd., Haverford, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Mrs. Lovel Bieg Lees, to Peter Denniston Kimball, of Germantown.

Daughter of the late Lieutenant Commander Valentine Nicholas Bieg, U. S. N., formerly of Alexandria, Va., Mrs. Lees, was graduated from the Shipley School, and made her debut in 1939.

Mr. Kimball was recently discharged from the U. S. Naval Reserve with the rank of Lieutenant Commander after serving four years overseas. He is a graduate of William Penn Charter School and Princeton University.

Mrs. Emily Jones, of Frackville, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lois Margaret Jones, to Joseph Shalloos Webb, Jr., son of Mrs. Ernest G. Ogden, of 720 Montgomery Ave., Narberth, and Mr. Joseph S. Webb, of West Chester.

Miss Jones is a graduate of St. Luke's Medical Center and the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Webb, who served for five years with the Army, attended the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dalgleish, Jr., of 542 Sussex Rd., Wynnewood, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Jean Dalgleish, to LeRoy G. Scatchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scatchard, of Birdsboro.

Mrs. Marianne Leonetti, of Germantown, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Rosemary Leonetti, to Charles S. Rini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rini, of 545 Revere Rd., Merion.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Tegler, of 519 Oxford Rd., Cynwyd, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rosemarie Louise Tegler, to Robert John Leahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leahy, of 808 Grayling Ave., Narberth.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Glen Good, of Santa Paula, Calif., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dixie Jean Good, to Robert W. Wigton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wigton, of Montgomery Ave. and Rose Lane, Haverford.

CARE Sets Up Food Package Office Here

Former Army Rations Used To Help Feed Peoples of Europe

Haverford Township has joined the growing list of American Communities which are establishing CARE headquarters for the sending of food packages to Europe.

Henry Shipper, of Swarthmore, Executive Director of the Philadelphia Area Cooperative Federation, announced this week that residents of Lower Merion and Haverford Townships may now order food packages from the Haverford Township Cooperative, 2409 Darby Rd., Oakmont.

CARE (Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, Inc.) is a non-profit, government-approved service agency which ships 40-pound food kits to Austria, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, France, Finland, Italy, Greece, Norway, Poland, Germany and the Netherlands.

These food packages are the former ten-in-one rations which helped make the American soldier the best fed combat soldier in the world.

One package which is enough to supplement the rations of an individual in Europe for 40 to 50 days contains canned butter, sugar, salt, soap, evaporated milk, cigarettes, pre-mixed cereals, canned pork and eggs, and the regular army dinner pack. Many other items are also included.

This pack cost $16 until a few months ago when the price was reduced to $10.

Operating under special agreements with European governments for tax free, duty free, ration free admission of its parcels, CARE pre-ships its packages in quantity and then stockpiles them in local warehouses throughout Europe. Orders are airmailed from the United States to CARE's representative in the property country. The packages are then sent from the nearest warehouse directly to the individual recipients.

Suburban Women Will Hold Meeting Monday

Mrs. Clarence E. Smith, of the Philadelphia Story League, will present a group of patriotic stories at a meeting of the Suburban Woman's Club to be held Monday at 1:30 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Norwood P. Kendrick, Seville Court, Bala-Cynwyd.

Mrs. Smith is associate editor of the magazine published by the National Story League.

Tea will be served. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Warren C. Childs, assisted by Mrs. E. A. Doty and Mrs. William R. Howell.

Legion Dance

An informal dance will be held Saturday night, Feb. 1, at the Merion War Tribute House for members of the American Legion.

PEOPLE ARE ASKING THESE QUESTIONS ABOUT ARMY ENLISTMENT

Q. What educational benefits do I get under the GI Bill of Rights?

A. If you serve honorably on active duty for a period of 90 days, one day of which is served between September 16, 1940, and the date of termination of the present war, or you are discharged because of an actual service-incurred injury or disability incurred within that first 90-day period of service, you are, upon discharge, entitled to one year of education in the college, trade or business school of your choice for which you can qualify. In addition, each month of active duty, including the first three, prior to the termination of the war, entitles you to another month of post-service education, up to 48 months.

Your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year will be paid by the government. Also, you will receive $65 a month living allowance; $90 a month if you have dependents.

Q. What about family allowances?

A. For men enlisting or reenlisting now, family allowances will continue until six months after the war is officially ended.

Q. What are my chances of going overseas?

A. If you enlist for 3 years, you may select to serve in any overseas theater which has openings, especially Japan or Korea.

Q. Can I still choose the branch of service I want to serve in?

A. Yes. You can pick any branch which has quotas to be filled, if you enlist for 3 years.

Q. Is there any way I can reenlist in my old grade?

A. Yes, you can, if you reenlist for a 3-year term within 20 days after your honorable discharge.

Q. Is there any other way I can reenlist in grade?

A. Yes, if you held one of certain military occupational specialties, and were discharged on or after May 12, 1945, you can reenlist in a grade depending on the length of time you held the desired M. O. S.

Control of Child's Crying Develops Self-Control

By GARRY CLEVELAND
MYERS, Ph. D.

Many a child from twelve months to six years of age whines and cries excessively—very trying to the mother's nerves. Such behavior may begin when the youngster is ill and be encouraged by physical conditions which warrant the attention of the physician. Though begun for such reason, the habit easily can continue long after all physical causes have been corrected.

The most frequent cause of whining and prolonged crying by the toddler is inconsistency of his parents and uncertainty to him about what he may have or do. Often the forbidding or accompanying punishment is too mild to deter him, but just severe enough to irritate him. A gentle slap on the hand or bottom, that really does not hurt or deter him, is almost sure to arouse his ire. Or, if a gentle slap is followed by several more in succession, each one a bit harder than the one before, none may have the result desired but only cause more violent anger and howling.

Tots frequently get spanked on a bottom well-armed with clothing and may feel the jar to their whole body but no stinging pain at all. No spanking is better than such torment. If the spanking really "burns," is connected immediately with the act forbidden, and is administered consistently, it has deterrent effect without necessarily causing prolonged crying. Incidentally the youngster who is spanked effectively is spanked rarely.

Having been assured by your doctor there is no physical cause for the child's prolonged whining and crying, check on the efficacy of your punishments for other matters and your degree of self-control.

It is not just for saving the nerves of the mother and other adults that the whining youngster should be "cured," but also for the child himself. It is very desirable for his self-control. Trained from his early years not to persist long in whining and crying, the child is having good preparation for his self-control of anger at ten, fifteen or fifty.

I have been impressed with the way two of our grandchildren, about two and three, respond to an occasional chair-sitting punishment, showing no resentment, but forgetting the whole matter quickly. While in appearance it has been forgotten, there is indubitable evidence that the desired effect of the punishment has lingered in their muscles, bones and nerves—good proof that the discipline had been wisely chosen and administered. When there is pronounced resentment after punishment in a child, the punisher needs to check on his procedure and improve it.

A few children whine and cry excessively because they are starving for affection, or suppose they get less of it than a brother or sister does. Be sure to fondle the youngster abundantly when he is good and really cultivate affection for him. Enjoy his conversation, answer his questions, read to him and have many good times with him.

When you know he has been out of sorts for a long period, you should drop everything and rock and cuddle him, sing or read to or go walking with him or create something with him. Such procedure should help you relax and be more calm with the child. Sometimes, as you know, his whining and crying only reflect the tenseness and irritation of some other one or all the rest of the family. My bulletins, "The Nervous Child" and "The Nervous Mother," may be had in a stamped envelope.

Cassatt Named "Y" Executive

Bodine and Steere
Re-elected To Posts

Alexander J. Cassatt, of Ithan Ave., Rosemont, was named vice president of the Y. M. C. A. of Philadelphia and vicinity at a meeting of the Board of Directors last week.

Cassatt, who is vice president of the Western Saving Fund Society, served as a Navy Commander during World War II. He is a director of the Pennsylvania Co., the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co., the Pennroad Corp., and Electric Storage Battery Co.

Re-elected another vice president of the Y was William W. Bodine, of County Line Rd., Villanova, vice president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., and president of the Lower Merion Township Police Pension Fund.

Re-elected treasurer was Jonathan M. Steere, of Walnut Lane, Haverford, a member of the Haverford Township Park Board.

MISS MATHER TO WED

The marriage of Miss Harriet Westbrook Mather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Mather, of Mount Airy, to L. Dean Tyler, son of Mrs. Lester Dean Tyler, of Railroad Ave. and County Line Rd., Haverford, will take place Saturday afternoon, May 31, at 4 o'clock.
